Watermark Academic Momentum

Stop drowning in dashboards. Start driving progress.

Academic program health shouldn't require weeks of manual data pull, multi-tab spreadsheets, or waiting years for the next formal review cycle. Watermark Academic Momentum rapidly synthesizes program documents, internal assessment metrics, and external market signals to deliver a clear, objective view of program health in a single session.

Unified synthesis across 6 health dimensions

Assess enrollment, curriculum quality, student success, post-graduation outcomes, operations, and stakeholder sentiment without needing a unified dashboard or data analyst.

Context-informed AI guidance

Pre-loaded academic leadership context works alongside advanced AI to connect the dots across your existing documents and data sets.

Actionable "micro-moves"

Move from analysis paralysis to defensible recommendations. Identify key collaborators, build talking points, and hold conversations that foster curiosity and collaborative creativity.

Instant value without IT bottlenecks

Get an instant program health snapshot without waiting for IT procurement cycles or heavy software implementations.

Get into GEAR with program health

G

Gather what you have

Start with what's already on your desktop: enrollment trends, completion rates, & historical self-studies.

E

Examine signals across 6 dimensions

Gain a 360-degree view of your program's complete health landscape rather than judging it by isolated metrics.

A

Add context from your answers and data

Add institutional history, faculty insights, & unique student dynamics that no standard dashboard captures.

R

Reveal your next move

Generate clear, defensible next steps long before the next formal review cycle.
